

Weekly Emotional Battery Check Worksheet

Write your thoughts, pause, or talk to a trusted adult whenever you feel ready.

Track what energizes you and what drains your mental capacity

WHAT IT FEELS LIKE

Understanding where your energy goes prevents chronic burnout before it turns into complete exhaustion.

GROUNDING RESET

Daily Energy Audit

Each evening, rate your battery from 1-10. Write down 1 'Energy Giver' (e.g., listening to music, talking to a safe friend) and 1 'Energy Taker' (e.g., cramming, conflict). Plan one boundary for tomorrow.

Take 3 slow breaths. You do not need to rush or figure everything out at once.
